JUDGMENT

The defendant in a suit filed in 2006 with no interlocutory orders therein, seeks a direction for final disposal of that suit within three months, on grounds that she is 77 years old and that she obtained clarification documents from the revenue department.

Without stating anything on merits, this writ petition is dismissed without prejudice to the right of the petitioner to move the learned Munsiff with a request for early disposal of the suit since the extent involved is stated to be only 3 cents and the defendant pleads that she is not only of advance age, but also in dire need of funds.
